'Trembling' Disappears

Bacall, Princess Talk of Children

LONDON (Reuters) — Movie star Lauren Bacall said Monday night she was "trembling inside" before meeting Princess Margaret and Queen Mother Elizabeth at the royal film performance here.

But Miss Bacall, widow of Humphrey Bogart, showed no signs of nervousness when presented at the charity showing of "The Horse's Mouth," starring Alec Guinness.

AGILE ANSWER

"Where my children are is home," Miss Bacall told Princess Margaret when asked if she didn't mind them being away from home.

Her two children are attending an American school in London.

ANGEL'S ACCENT

Among other stars presented was 70-year-old French singer-comedian Maurice Chevalier, who told reporters the Queen Mother had the "accent of an angel."

She and Princess Margaret chatted with him in French.

Dentistry as a profession was recognized as long ago as 500 BC.

Wallet, $115 Missing From Hospital Room

Disappearance of a wallet containing $115 and personal papers from a room in St. Joseph's Hospital is under investigation by city detectives.

O. Leigh Spencer, retired publisher of the Vancouver Province, resident of Salt Spring Island and a patient in the hospital, told police his wallet was lost while he was in the operating room Friday.

He said he left room 337 to go to the operating room, and found on his return he had been transferred to room 371. His belongings had been moved to the new room, but the wallet was missing.

Papers missing in the wallet include his driver's licence and some club and credit cards which would be of no value to anyone but the owner. Mr. Spencer is due for discharge from the hospital in a week.

After Two Weeks, No Minutes

Esquimalt council wants to know why the Greater Victoria Celebrations Association needs a full-time, paid secretary.

Matter came up last night after Coun. Edward DeCosta, municipal representative on the committee, gave a celebrations report to the regular council meeting.

Coun. G. K. Sammon wondered why council didn't have copies of the minutes of the Jan. 20 meeting of the celebrations association.

"It just doesn't add up," he said, "that we can't get the minutes of a group which has only one celebration a year.

"We should instruct our representative to inquire as to the need of a full-time, paid employee by the association."

Council decided to follow this suggestion.

Move by Victoria and District Parent-Teacher Council against spring-activated BB guns was endorsed by council.

The parent-teacher group recently passed a resolution urging that sale of such weapons be banned to persons under 14 and that their use in public be prohibited.

At present, the spring-activated rifles do not come under the Criminal Code, which covers use of air rifles.

Council decided to recommend that the parent-teacher body should refer its resolution to the attorney-general's department.

Magistrate Henry Hall, who has been home ill since Jan. 11, will continue to get his $65 a month from the municipality.

Question arose after council received a request for a like amount for acting Magistrate William Ostler.

"We pay sick leave for all municipal employees," said Coun. Sammon, "and he's a partial employee."

Council voted to pay Magistrate Hall up to Jan. 31, and any further payment would be discussed at a later meeting.
